Article 1 RECIPIENTS

The competition is open to composers of all nationalities aged 18 and over.

Article 2 PRIZE

Prize: Euro 300.00

For the best composition of an original contemporary aria on a sacred text.

Performance of the composition in a concert during the San Colombano 2022 music festival.

The amount of the prize is intended gross of withholding taxes.

The prizes will be paid by bank transfer within 60 days of the competition final and any transaction costs requested by the competitor's bank will be borne by the competitor.

Article 3 JURY

President: Christopher Shultis

Barbara Rettagliati – composer, professor at the Cherubini Conservatory in Florence

Roberto Codazzi - artistic musical director of the Museo del Violino in Cremona

Massimo Berzolla - composer, organist

Camillo Mozzoni - conductor and professor at the Conservatorio G. Nicolini in Piacenza

The Jury of the competition, appointed by the Association DeA Donne e Arte Piacenza - APS will select the compositions received and decide the winner of the composers section.

The jury will take its decisions by a majority of the votes cast and will notify the candidates by 20 October 2021 at the email address indicated on the application form.

If the competitors include students or former students of a member of the jury, he/she shall abstain from voting; in this case the vote of the president or the oldest member shall count as two.

The winner of the composers' section will be announced during the concert of the finalist singers of the sacred music section on Sunday 24th October in Piacenza Cathedral. The result of the selection will be published on the competition website www.concorsosancolombano.it.

The jury's decision is final.

The organisation is relieved from any responsibility deriving from possible substitutions of jury members due to extraordinary circumstances.
